Cookies & Website Analytics

We use a web analytics tool to enhance content provided on site and to analyse site usage; how users arrive at our site, what they do on the site, what browser they are using and on what operating system etc. This tool is Google Analytics, a web analytics service provided by Google Inc. ('Google').

Google Analytics uses 'cookies' and JavaScript code to help analyse user activity on websites. The information generated about your use of the website (including your IP address) will be transmitted to and stored on Google servers in the United States. However, this analytics data is not tied to personally identifiable information.

Google will not associate your IP address with any other data previously held. By using this website, you consent to the processing of data about you by Google in the manner and for the purposes set out above.

Read Google's Privacy Policy and Google's Terms of Service for detailed information.
